IN MISS BOSWELL'S HONOR.

Miss Mabel and Bessie French gave an informal social Friday night to a few friends in honor of their visitor Miss Mary Boswell of Paducah. Pool, flinch and boxing matches were in the program of entertainment and the refreshments consisted of welch rabbit, chocolate, cheese straws, apples, olives and pickles. All the boys joined in and assisted in preparing the refreshments. In the jolly party were Misses Jessie Isler, Ruth Stone and Mary Boswell of Paducah, and Messrs Chas. Travis, Henry Bond, Rev. Archie Boogher, T. H. Lovelace and John Dillon, Jr.

The Hon. Robert J. Breckinridge formally opened his campaign for Governor at Sanford. Much of his speech was devoted to discussing the eligibility of Gov. Beckham to re-election, which he denies. He announced that he would speak at Frankfort March 2 and invited Gov. Beckham and Mr. Hendrick to meet him in debate. Judge Breckinridge spoke very modestly of his own claims and only casually and good-naturedly alluded to the summary manner in which he was "kicked out" of the Attorney General's office, to which he had precisely the same title that Gov. Beckham had to his office. He denounced his eviction, as an outrage upon the Democratic party and the law of the land.
